

MURDER AND SUICIDE CAUSED BY EALOUSY

H. F. Denham Shoots Wife and Self.

THE DEED DONE AT DAWN

Family Together Last Night and No Indication of Any Purpose to Commit Suicide.

Insanely jealous without cause, Herman F. Denham, thirty-three years old, a letter carrier, living at 428 Elgin Street northeast, at 5 o'clock this morning killed his wife and then himself.

Denham has been a letter carrier for fifteen years, and for some years has been attached to Station B. Six years ago he married Willie May Kilgore, the daughter of Judge James Kilgore, formerly of Newberry, S. C. At the time of their death this morning Denham was thirty-three years old and his wife twenty-eight. Denham was a native of Washington, being a son of Thomas S.
Denham, of 702 Ninth Street southeast, one of Washington's best-known painters.

Denham has always been very much in love with his wife; so much so, in fact, that he was jealous of her every look and act. Himself of no remarkable physical attractiveness, he seemed to think that there was danger of losing the regard of his wife, who was quite pretty.
This fact was well known to members of both families, though they did not dream of so tragic an ending.

Spent Jolly Vacation.

Two weeks ago Denham took his vacation, and, together with his father and mother, his wife's father and mother, and Dr. and Mrs. Philip Wisner, a brother-in-law, spent the time camping at Columbia Beach. Always jolly and full of fun, Denham was unusually so during the camping trip, and no one knows just what circumstance it was which excited his jealousy. All the acquaintances of the dead woman unite in saying there was absolutely no cause for such a feeling on his part.

Even yesterday there was nothing to indicate that there was a murderous thought brooding in the mind of Denham. Last night all the members of the family met at his house for a social time and a pleasant game of cards. At a late hour all departed, except Judge and Mrs. Kilgore, who lived with young Denham.

Deed Done at Dawn.

It was a few minutes past 5 o'clock when Judge Kilgore was awakened by the sound of two shots. He rushed into the room occupied by Denham and his wife, which was the back parlor on the first floor, and there he found both husband and wife dead. Denham had shot his wife and then himself. She was lying on her face, her right arm under her head, Denham lying at her left. He had shot her in the left temple. Then he had placed the pistol to his own right temple and sent a second ball crashing into his brain. He was lying on his back, and had lived long enough to drop his hand to his side. The pistol then falling from his nerveless grasp, lying on the bed just beneath his right hand.

The frightened father-in-law rushed from the house and to the Ninth predict stationhouse, two blocks away, where he told what had occurred. Sergeant Falvey and Policemen Smith and Curd rushed to the house, at the same time summoning Drs. Bowdell and Cole.
The latter pronounced both dead, and Coroner Nevitt was notified.

Nothing was found in the way of a letter explaining the act, but members of the family informed Coroner Nevitt of Denham's jealous disposition, and he, therefore, gave a certificate of murder in the case of the woman, and of suicide in the case of her husband. The bodies were then turned over to Undertaker Scott. Funeral arrangements have not been completed, but it is announced that Denham will be buried here, while his wife will be taken to the old home in South Carolina for interment. Her father, Judge Kilgore, is now a law clerk in the Treasury Department.

A FOOD LESSON

That Will Never Be Forgotten.

A young lady says: "I was sick for over a year from what the doctors called Typhoid-malaria fever and had cold sweats most of the time. I was a tremendous appetite and was allowed to eat anything I pleased until my stomach finally gave out so that I could not even take toast-water without its fermenting and giving me much misery and distress.
"I became so discouraged and downhearted after several years passed without getting well; in fact I only convalesced enough to be taken out for a short drive each day and was always brought back so tired that I would resolve not to go again. I lost over 50 pounds. Changing physicians I was advised to go to the mountains and finally went to the Alleghenies. At my boarding house a lady at the table ordered Grape-Nuts for breakfast. I had never heard of it before so I asked her about the food and she told me it had done her so much good, and suggested that I order some, which I did. I liked it and used it while I stayed there several weeks and found to my surprise that it agreed with my delicate stomach and I soon began to feel better nourished and got so strong I could take long walks and not feel tired. My weight began to come back and that haggard look vanished from my face.

"I found that Grape-Nuts was just what I needed and when I returned home I still continued using it and for more than two years now I have hardly ever missed a day without eating Grape-Nuts. After my friends saw what Grape-Nuts did for me it was not hard to persuade them to give the food a trial.

"To sum it all up I am now better than I have felt for a number of years, can work all day and sleep all night and I eat quite hearty of almost any food after I have made my breakfast of Grape-Nuts and rich cream. I have gained back all the weight that I want and am now happy and contented." Name given

TOLD WHAT SHOULD BE PROFIT ON GROCERIES

Local Retailers Listen to Officers of National Body.

PEOPLE MUST BE EDUCATED

Manager Shannon, of Biscuit Company, Denies His Company Is Aiding Local Firm in Cutting Rates.

At the regular weekly meeting of the Retail Grocers' Association, held last night at the Jolly Fat Men's Club, a reception was tendered to the officers of the National Association who have been attending the meetings of the Virginia State convention of retail grocers and who, while on their journey to New York, stopped off in Washington. In addition to hearing addresses from the national officers the association also listened to a statement made by Mr. Shannon, local manager for the National Biscuit Company, as to that company's position in the controversy with the retail grocers.

The officers of the national association are: President, C. R. Lott, of Chicago; vice president, A. W. Farling, Atlanta, Ga.; and secretary, Fred Mason, St. Paul, Minn. P. B. Otterback, president of the local association, introduced Mr. Lott, who spoke of the history of the national association and its wonderful progress.

Mutual Insurance.

He also advocated the establishment of a mutual insurance company for the protection of the grocers from fire loss.
The address of Vice President Farling dealt with the pure food question. He discussed the food adulteration and said there should be a national demand for a pure food law. He spoke of the enactment of the pure food bill by the last Congress as being a step in the right direction, and said also it was the beginning of a widespread movement.

Secretary Mason spoke of the policy of co-operation among the grocers and the good the collection department of the grocers had done. He said grocers must make a profit of at least 12 per cent on their goods to be successful, and an average of 15 per cent on 65 per cent of their sales. This, he said, could only be done by educating the people to the fact, and also by co-operation with them and assuring them that pure goods, honest prices and honest weight prevailed.

Defends His Company.

Following Secretary Mason, Mr. Shannon addressed the gathering. The local grocers assert the company has aided a local customer in selling the National's products at cut rate prices, and the retailers are trying to compel the National Biscuit Company to cease selling goods to this firm. Mr. Shannon said it would be illegal not to sell if the dealer was regularly licensed, but denied that his company had aided the firm in the manner alleged by the grocers. He said the National Biscuit Company always avoided, as far as possible, selling to firms who cut rates, and added that he would rather lose the trade of one large store than that of a number of small ones.

Mr. Shannon's remarks were discussed at some length, but action by the local association was deferred to some future time.

PRESIDENT AWAITING TODD CASE REPORT

Completes Plans for Visit to Antietam.

OYSTER BAY, Sept. 12.—This was another quiet day for President Roosevelt.
No visitors were received at Sagamore Hill, and after dictating correspondence the President went on a horseback ride with Mrs. Roosevelt and one of the boys.

Secretary Loeb said this morning that Postmaster General Payne's report on the Todd case had not yet reached the President. Until the President gets the report and has time to digest its contents he will not say anything about it for publication.

The President has completed all preparations for the last trip during his present vacation to New York and Antietam next Wednesday and Thursday.
The Sylph, with the President aboard, will leave Oyster Bay Wednesday morning for Ellis Island, where he will inspect the new immigrant station.

Before midnight he will take a Pennsylvania train at Jersey City for Antietam.

The President's trip to the battleground is to receive from Governor Murphy, of New Jersey, on behalf of the Government, the monument erected to the memory of the New Jersey soldiers who fell there. The President expects to reach New York on the return trip at 9 or 10 p. m. When he reaches Jersey City he will again go aboard the Sylph, which will remain overnight anchored in the harbor. The homeward run to Oyster Bay will begin at daybreak.

CIGAR STORE TRUST FORCES RIVAL OUT

Buying Out Independent's Stands U. C.
S. Company Eliminates Opposition.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—After a bitter profit-cutting fight lasting for months the United Cigar Stores Company yesterday bought out the Independent Cigar Stores Company's twenty-eight stands in this city for a consideration approximating $500,000.

The fight between these great tobacco store trusts was waged so bitterly and relentlessly by the United Cigar Stores that its rival was forced to the wall.
The American Tobacco Company is understood to hold $200,000 in stock of the United Cigar Stores Company. The trust, by buying out this concern, has eliminated all opposition of any consequence to it or its methods.

NOW BANK PRESIDENT; FORMERLY A REPORTER

S. R. Flynn Once Did Financial Work Here in Washington.

Advices from South Bend, Ind., describing the hot exchange of words at the International Bankers' Association convention between Representative Powler and President Flynn, of the National Live Stock Bank, Chicago, fail to set forth that Mr. Flynn, bank president, is the same S. R. Flynn who resided in Washington for many years and was widely known in local financial and newspaper circles.

Indeed, few of his former friends here recognized him in the ruffled banker the enterprising Mr. Flynn of Washington fame, the dispatches having given no initials. But those who did were keenly amused and interested in the incident.

S. R. Flynn, now head of the Chicago bank, was for many years engaged in newspaper work in Washington as a reporter for a Baltimore publication. He was widely known in banking circles on account of having to "cover" the financial news in Cleveland's administration he was appointed a bank examiner.
Later he organized a bank in Spokane, Wash., from which he resigned to accept his present position.

CHINESE ON VESSELS IN ALASKAN WATERS

Will Be Deported When They Reach Seattle or San Francisco.

In a report to the Revenue Cutter Service from the United States steamer Perry, Capt. F. Tuttle in command, tells of the discovery of large numbers of Chinese on the cannery vessels in the waters about Bristol Bay and other Alaskan waters whose certificates are defective. The inspectors of immigration at Seattle and San Francisco have been notified to apprehend these Chinese on their return to those points. The Chinese are helpless, as they can return from the Alaskan regions only on the cannery vessels and are forced to go to Seattle or San Francisco. Their deportation will undoubtedly follow.

At the Department of Justice a decision is expected soon from Judge Lo-ranger, of the Canadian court at Montreal, in the habeas corpus proceedings for the release of the sixteen Chinamen recently detained at Richford, Vt., and Malone, N. Y.

Special United States Attorney John L. Lott returned today from Montreal, where he went to appear for the Government.

The decision involves a point of importance in the administration of the immigration laws. The suits are a test of the contract between the United States Government and the Canadian Pacific Railroad Company, by which the railroad was transporting the Chinese back to Vancouver in bond. The Chinese claim the right to designate the port from which they are to leave the country. They desire to leave at La Cole, a point on the Grand Trunk line from which it would be easy to get to the border, the more so as this Government has no immigration officials at La Cole. Under the arrangement with the Canadian Pacific, the Chinese who are refused re-entry are always taken for deportation to some point where there are immigration officials.
